[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Wholesale Impeachment in Arkansas.

LITTLE ROCK, May 25.—The House Committee on Impeachment have reported articles against Auditor Wheeler, Chief Justice McClure and a number of Associate Justices, Circuit Judges and other officials connected with the late insurrection. McClure and Wheeler were impeached with but nine dissenting votes in the case of Wheeler. Other cases will be tried on to-morrow.

Celebration of Virginian Britons.

RICHMOND, May 25.—The British settlers in Virginia celebrated the Queen's birthday by a royal salute, a banquet, and a meeting to organize a permanent British association in Virginia for promoting the interests of Britons intending to make their homes here.

Murder.

BOSTON, May 25.—Yesterday at Weymouth landing the body of an unknown woman apparently twenty-five years old was found in the water with her head wrapped in a carriage robe fastened with a clothes line to a heavy tailor's goose. There was a bullet hole in the head. It is thought that the woman was murdered here and the body carried to Weymouth and thrown into the water.

Legislative Inquiry into the Mill River Disaster.

BOSTON, May 25.—A number of witnesses were before the legislative committee appointed to investigate the Mill River disaster, among them Collins Graves, who rode down the valley before the flood and warned the villagers. His story was modest, and agrees with accounts already published.

Fires.

ALBANY, May 25.—A fire to-night damaged the stock of Samuel Childs & Co.'s crockery and cutlery store to the extent of $50,000. Insured.

DETROIT, May 25.—The U. S. bonded warehouse on McPhail's wharf was burned this evening with a lot of cotton and other property.

NEW YORK, May 25.—At a meeting of the P. M. S. S. stockholders to-day about 60,000 shares were represented. The following ticket for Directors was agreed on: Russell Sage, Rufus Hatch, Francis [illegible], Wm. A. Guion, F. W. Hard, George S. [illegible], John Kelly, R. S. Burrows and F. S. Talcott.

The steamer Idaho, reported aground on Fire Island this morning, got off without injury to the [illegible] or steamer.

WASHINGTON CITY.

W. L. Adams to be Reimbursed.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Mitchell's bill was reported favorably from the Senate Committee on Claims to-day. It provides for reimbursing Col. W. L. Adams some $20,000 stolen from him on a steamship between Astoria and San Francisco, in [illegible].

After Delegate Cannon.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The House Committee on Elections to-day examined Belle Kimball, daughter of Elder Kimball of the Mormon Church, who testified that Delegate Cannon married his fourth wife in 1867 and started on a combined fishing and pleasure trip, accompanied by wives Nos. 3 and 4. Witness did not know whether his other wives are living or not.

Kendall's bill providing for the taxation of Central Pacific and Union Pacific Railroad lands, which has already passed the House, is now in the Senate Committee on Railroads, of which Stewart of Nevada is Chairman.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The Italian Ministry Resigns.

ROME, May 25.—The King has refused to accept the resignations of Ministers and they will remain in office and introduce new financial measures. Parliament will soon be prorogued.

From Paris.

PARIS, May 25.—The announcement of a Republican success in the Department of the Nievre was incorrect. Burgony, a Bonapartist, had a majority of [illegible].

From London.

LONDON, May 26.—The Times of this morning announces that Prince Arthur has been made Duke of Connaught.

CANADA.

TORONTO, May 25.—The Queen's birthday was observed as a general holiday throughout the Dominion.

HENRY WARD BEECHER ON CREMATION.

The papers are full of discussion about the burning of the bodies after death instead of burying them. People are not likely to change habits easily that involve the profoundest feelings, the associations, sentiments cherished in connection with a method of burial practiced for ages. There are many practices in connection with burial which would almost incline one to the practice of cremation—we allude to the outrageous expense which the customs of society almost compel one to incur. Coffins have become almost objects of fine art, and, like creations of art, are becoming extravagantly expensive. Except as a matter of taste, this makes little difference to the rich. But the example is pernicious. The funeral expenses attending the burial of men who are moved in good society in Brooklyn and New York ranges from $500 to $1,000. The most expensive wood, wrought in the most artistic methods, with excessive ornaments by way of screws, handles, plates, scrolls, etc., the retinue of carriages, etc., all swell the bill. If by cremation the ostentation and extravagance of funerals could be abated, it would furnish a strong motive for the introduction of the custom.

But it is hardly probable that the habits of the ages will be changed with such precipitance as to send such thrills of alarm as have been experienced by the fair friend whose letter we insert:

DEAR SIR: For the love of all you hold sacred do waft through the medium of your inspired pen a sermon upon the horrors of that ghastly thing called cremation.

Of course I believe that dust we are, and unto dust we must return; that we shall be raised with renewed bodies, or, as St. Paul says, 'spiritual bodies,' yet who is there among us that holds not sacred the beloved bodies of our precious dead? 'Picture to yourself the beloved bodies of your precious wife and children subjected to a fervent heat, that shall destroy them utterly in an hour and a half,' as stated in one of our favorite journals. Horrible! God forbid that any such scheme shall ever prosper! Do, do, Mr. Beecher, use your influence in suppressing the same and oblige,

TRUE FRIENDS.

N. B.—Do not toss this in that receptacle for scraps, etc., termed waste-basket.

Accordingly, our inspired pen 'now wafts a sermon' to all concerned:

1. We are heartily opposed to any compulsory burning. Whoever prefers to be burned should have an unrestrained liberty in the matter. If it be pleasanter to decay gradually in a box five feet beneath the ground, giving to the near absorbent earth the volatile constituents of our cast off bodies than to be turned speedily to ashes, so let it be.

2. If there be those who, looking forward, contemplate with satisfaction an urn containing the unconsumable particles of their bodies, why should they be denied their preference? Shall one who wishes to be ashes be compelled to be dirt? If one prefers to have his urn on a shelf should he be obliged to have a box far under ground.

3. Let every one choose. Let commissions be appointed who shall put the question without bias to each one, 'Will you burn or bury?' And let there be no odium cast upon either side. Whether it be dust or ashes let it be esteemed orthodox. Having fallen into parties, sects, clans all their life, and quarreled about almost every question, there should be peace at last, and man's ghost not be disturbed as to the disposition of his body. 'The Burning Sect!' 'the Burying Sect!' 'Fire or the Spade!' 'Into the Ground or into the Air!' How unseemly would be these cries.

Finally, by way of application:

4. It is very little matter what becomes of the body after we have done with it. It is of a great deal more importance to consider well what will befall the soul. The casket is of little value, but the jewel is priceless! Here endeth the sermon.

Party managers are beginning to understand that the voters who have hitherto taken back seats at the caucus, and who have never been heard in the nominating conventions, are now handling the poles themselves and they propose to say who shall take the persimmons. Hitherto in Iowa a nomination on the Republican ticket has been equivalent to an election. That day has passed forever.—Waterloo Courier (Rep.)

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 26.—Rutherford left Salt Lake yesterday for the East.

Greenbacks 89¾@90.

The infamous scandal about Rev. Mr. Van De Mark, pastor of the First Universal Church, and his boy, was revived in the church meeting last night, and after an angry discussion he was dismissed from the custody of the flock. It was charged months ago that he had a boy whom he kept for infamous purposes, and he was only retained in this particular corner of the vineyard on a promise to send him East. Now the boy has returned, and it is charged that he has made several clandestine meetings at the rooms of Van De Mark, thereby reviving the old suspicions against both.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Indian War in Alaska.

VICTORIA, B. C., May 26.—The steamship California arrived from the northern coast last night. She brings no late news from Cassiar. She reports that at Sitka a war was existing between the Chilcate and Sitka Indians just outside the town. Up to the time of the sailing of the California three Indians had been killed and two wounded.

Prof. H. W. Elliott, of the Smithsonian Institute, and L. R. Woods, Esq., U. S. Collector of Customs for Onalaska, sailed to-day for Sitka. Prof. Elliott is commissioned by the U. S. Government to regulate the seal fisheries of Alaska, and whilst there will pursue his investigations in the interests of science.

The wrecked schooner Etta, of Coos Bay, was sold at auction to-day for $1,050.

LETTER FROM McMINNVILLE.

ANOTHER MINISTERIAL QUACK WRITES A PASTORAL LETTER—THE MAN WHO WENT TO THE SANDWICH ISLANDS ON A MULE KNOWS MORE THAN ANY OTHER MAN IN OREGON—THEY TAKE PEOPLE FOR IDIOTS—A NEWSPAPER THAT HAS HAD A PASTORAL VISIT—THE INDEPENDENTS CAN'T SEE IT.

McMINNVILLE, May 25, 1874.

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

In your paper of some days since you speak of prominent gentlemen who have written confidential letters to friends in different parts of the State to induce them to vote and use their influence with the old ring and thereby save the State from another term of Grover's administration. Dr. McBride, of Portland, is engaged in the same business. Two gentlemen in McMinnville, at least, have been thus favored by him. He implores them as a dear friend, knowing them to be honest men, to give their influence and their votes to Tolman. He pleads that although he is too old to take any public interest in politics he is not too old to pay taxes. He would do anything in the world to elect 'Bro. Campbell,' but it is perfectly impossible. Living as he does in the center of gravity of Oregon politics, he is as well posted as any other man in the whole State, and 'Bro. Campbell' can not get more than one-sixth of the vote of the State.

His letter would make a whole column in your paper. You can tell something of its meaning from this. We Yamhill Independents can't see it in that light. What advantage would result from Tolman over Grover?

A SOMMERSAULT.

The honest men in this county would like for you to tell them what is the matter with the Yamhill county Reporter. Being without much experience in the world, one of these wise men may have sent a letter that caused it to stagger into the ring. It has changed politics half a dozen times in its short life and expects to change again after next Monday. A few days ago it was in favor of Davenport and Campbell and displayed their names under 'Our Ticket,' but now it comes out with nearly all of the Hipple candidates. The ring may pay them for this, but from the way their subscribers talk, they will need it all, for they are tired of trying to follow the paper in its changes.

THE COUNTY CANVASS.

The candidates for county officers are canvassing the county. News comes every day of gain in the interest of the People's ticket. At Wheatland Mr. Russ, the Holladay-Mitchell candidate for the Senate, said the Campbell men were not the farmers of the county and called for all of the Independents who were farmers to rise to their feet. The greater part of the audience responded. He then called for all the Republicans who were farmers, and Gen. Palmer, of Dayton, a candidate for the Legislature, was the only man who responded in the house, when one man outside cried out, "I'm a Republican!" 'Good!' says Mr. Russ, 'there are two!' 'But I'm not going to vote for you,' says the man on the outside. Russ' lip hung low.

The Democrats were called, but they did not come out worth a cent.

CROPS, ETC.

The prospect for good crops never was as good before. Some of the farmers who sowed early fall wheat are afraid it will grow so large that it will fall. Farmers are in good spirits, as they expect the largest yield ever known and hope for a good price. The wool clip will be unusually large, but late rains are making the shearing late.

Set old Yamhill down for the Independent ticket next Monday.

Farmers haven't time to write long letters for the papers, so I must close for this time.

SIMPLE JUSTICE.

PENDLETON, May 18, 1874.

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

I see in the Daily Bulletin of the 16th inst. the following under the head 'The Truth Hurts': 'Martin V. Brown, Grover candidate for State Printer, is very eager to have the fact kept from the public that he did, while a Home Guard and Loyal Leaguer in Iowa, rejoice over the hanging of Mrs. Surratt. He did nevertheless.' It seems that the Bulletin has become so addicted to lying that it can't tell the truth about anything—not even about its co-worker, against the cause of the people, the Democratic party. In the year 1865 M. V. Brown and myself with many others crossed the plains. We were on the Cache La Poudre, a stream running from the Black Hills into South Platte, on the 4th to about the 10th of July. There weren't to exceed two 'Loyal Leaguers' in the train of over 100 persons. Mart Brown was not one of those two, and there is not one word of truth in the statement made above—copied from the Bulletin. But O'Meara cannot consistently tell the truth about anything.

I make this statement, feeling it to be a duty I owe Mart. Let justice be done. Though I do not support the Democratic ticket I favor 'giving the devil his due.'

The Independent or People's ticket is fast gaining strength here every day. The candidates for Governor speak here to-day.

I will give you a report of the speeches here and at Weston. We are confident here of giving a majority in this county for the Independent State ticket and will elect our county ticket by an overwhelming majority.

Yours, J. H. TURNER.

The House Judiciary Committee voted by six to four for the impeachment of Judge Durell, of Louisiana.

The Senate adjourned on the 20th inst. in order that Senators might attend Nellie Grant's wedding.

BAKER COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

INDEPENDENT [illegible] THE [illegible] RING BEAT—SCHOOL DISTRICT FRAUD—VAST [illegible]

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

The [illegible] of [illegible] the [illegible] of reform grows brighter every day. The violated pledges of the Republican and Democratic parties as they are exposed to the gaze of the toiling miner, farmer and mechanic, creates a desire in their honest bosoms for the success of the Independents.

All over the State of Oregon men—noble minded men—are cutting loose from the thralldom of parties and declaring for the party of reform, progress and purity.

THE GOD AND MORALITY PARTY.

As the Republicans [illegible] having put on their State ticket a man who openly violates the laws of the land as well as the laws of God, have lost hosts of votes in this section. The little ring he runs here is the most inconsequential concern that was ever allowed to exist in any country. No influence, no enterprise, no brains. That expresses all of C. M. Foster's ring.

SCHOOL DISTRICT FRAUDS.

Now comes the 'Democratic ring' to judgment. It is all potent, and has, through the attempted fraud of the Republican candidate for Secretary of State on the Republican State ticket, about which I wrote you some time ago, kept in power running the finances of the country, and I do not verily believe that anybody outside of this ring can guess within ten thousand dollars how much the county indebtedness is to-day.

Yesterday there was a vote of School District No. 5 on the question of levying a special tax of $1,000 to pay off delinquencies, etc. Well, an investigation into the affairs of the District developed the fact that there was no account of the finances of the District for the year 1872 at all. They had been torn out of the book—when handed by the Clerk of the District the past few years to his successor, H. C. Small. And who do you suppose that Clerk was, Mr. Editor? It was the God-like Milton Hypocrit Abbott—the present editor of the Eastern Oregon Tribune—which paper is crying out against the Independents and hallooing for the straight Democratic ticket. He worships at the shrine of such political rottenness as A. H. Brown, J. H. Slater and their ilk. This man Abbott has been frequently accused of being a defaulter in a Minnesota Land Office and a defaulting Democratic Treasurer of Pike county, Illinois, etc. Mart Brown in the Albany Democrat, of date August 18th, 1871, accused him of the former, and the Pittsfield (Ill.) Flag of date about April 1st, 1872, published the latter of him. In the spring of the year 1873 this man was Clerk of said School District, and asked the Directors to allow him pay for thirty days' time for assessing the District. A man who could not do it in three days would be unfit for any office on earth. There is a mysterious forty-three dollars which the Directors would like to have this man Abbott explain all about, together with many other things connected with his financial transactions. But I have not the time to follow this man through all his devious courses here. And I beg your pardon for referring to him at all, and will dismiss him by saying that he is an old fossil of the Democratic antediluvian times, and has been hunting in vain for somebody to kill him the past 40 years.

The people of said district yesterday voted over two to one against raising the tax, and one reason a voter gave me for voting against 'the special tax' was that the Directors hired a lawyer to draw a contract to build a fifteen hundred dollar schoolhouse and paid him one hundred dollars therefor.

That is the way the people's money goes. Do we not need reform through all the avenues of government from the national administration down to our lowest office? Verily, indeed! such is the fact. And the man who does not see it is blinded either by party prejudice or the hope of party reward.

Look at the insolence of party power, and at its audacity, too. The Democrats put on their ticket a man for State Treasurer who voted to tax the people of this county to aid in the purchase of the Locks and Dam Swindle. A man who actually nominated in joint convention Hon. H. W. Corbett for U. S. Senator after he had withdrawn. A. H. Brown and C. M. Foster, a pretty pair for the suffrages of a free people. To what point are we drifting intellectually and morally? Look at the Douglas county fusion, where the extremes meet and the pipe of peace is smoked by Democrats and Republicans to defeat honesty and reform!

Look at the Republicans of Baker county coming up to their convention and putting on their ticket the Democratic ring candidates for office, and then see them going all over the county crying out against that very ring. Oh! consistency thou art indeed a jewel! but thou wert never found in these latter days adorning the banners of the old defunct Democracy or the played out Republican party. This is the spectacle! vaunted Democrats and hypocritical Republicans shaking hands across the bloody chasm in order to defeat the party of advanced ideas of reform and of progress. Reform will win in the end, for it is the cause of the people.

VOX POPULI.

FAST STOCK IN UNION COUNTY.

The spring races over the Union Race Course commenced on Tuesday, 19th inst., and continued five days. The track is new—these being but the second series of races over it—but is an excellent track—the soil of Grand Ronde valley appearing to be peculiarly adapted to that purpose. On Friday there was a very heavy rain storm, followed by showers all day Saturday, leaving the track very heavy, for which reason the 'great race' of the season for $1,000 is postponed. The following is a report of the races run:

First day—Single dash of one mile, for two year olds, purse $75. T. P. Baird entered Lucy Bird, Jo. Yowell Jenny, D. Johnson Brown Bess. Won by Jenny. Time 1:5[illegible].

Second day—Heat races, best two in three—mile heats, for 3 year olds. Purse $100. LaBuff entered Walker, Hud. [illegible] Flying Cloud, Sturgill Traveler. Won by Flying Cloud—Time 1st heat 1:5[illegible], second heat 2 min [illegible] sec. Traveler distanced 1st heat.

Third day—Half mile heats, best two in three. Purse $150. LaBuff entered Buckskin, Morton Brown Dick, Sturgill Gypsy. First heat won by Buckskin in 53 seconds; second heat won by Gypsy in 58 seconds; third heat won by Buckskin in 5[illegible] seconds. On third heat Gypsy broke a leg. She was valued at $1,000.

Fourth day—The candidates for Governor spoke, and the race for the day was postponed. But there was a quarter race made up for a purse of $100 between Alex. Buff's John Baptist and Sturgill's Weasel. Won by Weasel in 26 seconds.

Last day—Trotting races, best two in three, mile heats. Purse $100. Track very heavy. [illegible] entered Cayuse George, [illegible] by some [illegible] Mystery [illegible] J. Weathers [illegible] Hannah Snowflake. First heat won by Snowflake in 3:5[illegible]; second heat won by Cayuse George in [illegible]; third heat, won by Cayuse George in 3:2[illegible].

As an evidence of the condition of the track we have only to say that the colt Snowflake while training made the mile easily inside of three minutes.

THE FINAL ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS.—The prospect for an earlier adjournment than has been hitherto expected seems to have improved. The hot weather with the desire that Congressmen begin to feel to be at home looking after the fall elections has had a wonderfully stimulating effect on business in the House, and now many members really believe an adjournment in the latter part of June is probable.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Times.

A ROMANCE OF ARKANSAS.

Appearing in a Nashville paper, credited to one J. Freeman Smith, is a tremendous romance of facts occurring in Fayetteville District, Arkansas, a region of country to which the attention of Oregon voters has recently been directed by the struggles of Dr. L. J. Powne, Democratic candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction. The distinct religious tone which pervades the middle stanza of this profound idyl seems to call for an alibi. Here is the chaste description of the lovers:

He was young, he was fair, and he parted his hair like the average beau in the middle; he was proud, he was bold, but the truth must be told, he played like a fiend on the fiddle. But aside from this vice he was everything nice, and his heart was so loving and tender that he always turned pale when he trod on the tail of the cat lying down by the fender. He clerked in the store, and the way that he tore off calico jeans and brown sheeting would have tickled a colt and make the brute laugh in the face of a quarterly meeting. He cut quite a dash with a darling moustache which he learned to adore and to cherish, for one girl had said, while she dropped her proud head, that 'twould kill her to see the thing perish. On a Sunday he'd search the straight road to the church, unheeding the voice of the scorner, and demurely he sat like a young tabby cat with the saints in the far amen corner. He sang like a bird, and his sweet voice was heard fairly tugging away at long meter; and we speak but the truth when we say that this youth could out sing a hungry mosquito.

She was young, she was fair, and she scrambled her hair like the average belle of the city; she was proud, but we hold yet the truth must be told, that the way she chewed wax was a pity. But aside from this vice she was everything nice, and the world much applauded her bustle; and the Fayetteville boys, being calmed by the noise, walked miles just to hear the thing rustle. She cut quite a swell, did this wax chewing belle, and the men flocked in armies to meet her, but she gave them the shirk, for she loved the young clerk who sang like a hungry mosquito. So she hemmed and she hawed, and she sighed and she chawed until her heart and jaws were both broken; then she walked by his store, while he stood at the door awaiting some amative token. She raised up her eyes with a pretty surprise, and tried to 'chaw' the proud corner, but to tell the plain truth she just grinned at the youth who loved the devout amen corner.

THE OPERA HOUSE AND OTHER THINGS.

SALEM, May 21, 1874.

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

Mr. Reed's letter gives a new version of the May contract, though it can hardly be said to put a new face upon the matter. It seems that May's contract included the addition to the Opera House. I had understood it to include only the vacant rooms of the same. But the rooms proposed were not suitable for the uses of the State, and could not have been made so even if Mr. Reed had had money with which to have made proffered alterations. The idea that he would have been able to have kept possession of the property if May had kept his agreement with him is in keeping with the delusion and illusion which pursued him from the inception of the Opera House elephant to the hour when its creditors were compelled to take it in satisfaction of its debts.

The law respecting this matter of rents will be found upon page 624 of the Code, as follows:

'Sec. 23. The Secretary of State shall contract for and furnish rooms at the seat of government for the use of the Legislative Assembly during the session of the Assembly, and stowing the furniture used by the Assembly during vacation at such place as the said Assembly shall direct.'

Secretary Chadwick understood that May had no authority for making the Reed contract, and that he had none for reviving it; that the present offices were rented under the direction of the Assembly, and that it is only by their authority that others can be.

There is no doubt but that the State is paying a higher rate for all its rooms than could be obtained of private parties. Of course there is no reason why it should continue to do so. The matter commends itself to the Secretary or Legislature.

I see it charged that the appropriation of $2,000 a year for the Deaf Mute School has been tolled $150. I am unwilling to believe this to be true, and look for a flat denial when the officer charged returns.

FACTS.

TRIUMPH FOR THE AMERICAN EAGLE.

The gymnasium just now has become almost the club room for the young men about town. Boxing is all the rage, and in order to be perfectly in the mode, you must be able to strike out from the shoulder. Sartoris has frequented the gymnasium often of late and has won the reputation of being the best boxer that goes there. Every man except the professor, who put on the gloves with him were invariably worsted. The Englishmen who hover about the gymnasium were delighted with his success, and said that Americans could not be expected to compete with Englishmen in point of science and muscle. The other day Sartoris had stripped for a box, but no one but the professor would box with him, as he has a habit of hitting a little too hard, even with his gloves on, and so the candidates for being bruised for his amusement were very scarce. At this juncture a quiet gentlemanly looking young man came into the room, and learning of Sartoris' desire for some one to box, offered politely to fill the vacancy. There was a murmur of satisfaction from both the Englishmen and Americans present. The former thought Sartoris had another victim upon whom to exhibit his powers, while the latter recognized the late comer as one of the most accomplished amateur gymnasts in the city; of a small well knit frame, he is under the most thorough training. A one hundred pound dumb bell is a mere plaything for him, and in his best moods he quietly puts up one hundred and thirty pound.

When the young man came out to have a bout with Sartoris the members of the gymnasium who were practicing ceased their occupation and quietly took seats. Captain Las[illegible] of the German legation and [illegible] first Secretary of the Spanish legation were among the most eager of the spectators. When the two young men put themselves in position it was observed that Sartoris did not have so confident an air, while the young American, calm and thoroughly self-possessed, looked his opponent square in the eye and awaited the attack. At first there was a great deal of false attack and defense until Sartoris made a sudden spring for a blow full in his opponent's face, but this was quickly parried, and the attack began on Sartoris, so that he was put to all his arts to successfully defend himself for a moment even. Suddenly the right arm of the young American shot out straight with almost incredible quickness, and striking Sartoris full in the mouth, knocked him the distance of several feet, he falling in a heap of wounded humbled ball. It was discovered in a moment that he had received a very severe blow in spite of the glove. His lips were parted and bleeding, while two of his front teeth were loosened and in danger of being permanently injured. This blow seems to have been one of the most favorable productions to Sartoris for his opponent. He became immediately very much taken with the young man who could give him points in boxing, and has become quite intimate with him since, having him out at his little suppers at Welcker's and in every other way testifying his admiration and respect for a man of more physical power.—*Wash. The Marshal of Idaho passed through Walla Walla last week with three prisoners for the Penitentiary at Boise. Two Chinese prisoners convicted at the late term of Court at Lewiston—one for selling whisky to Indians, and the other for larceny.

A short time since the goods, notes and accounts of Jacobson Bros. at Camas Prairie, Idaho, were sold at Sheriff's sale on execution in favor of Portland and San Francisco creditors to the amount of about $18,000. The sales amounted to about $8,000. The property sold was bid up to about its full value, as we are informed.

Next Thursday it is proposed by the Olympians to help the Tumwater people, who have evinced so much spirit and resolution in working three days a week before last on Bush Prairie, when their self imposed task in their own town is probably too much for their numbers, but not for their courage. The stores will probably be closed, and it will be one of the greatest turnouts we have yet had. The work men will start at 7½ A. M.

The Courier says: 'The Noble Grands and Vice Grands of Olympia Lodge No. 1 and Western Lodge No. 6, I. O. O. F., went out with carriages to Tenino Monday to escort Grand Master H. G. Struve in town and to the hall on Washington street, there to secure the congratulations of both Lodges. There being but six Lodges in the Territory, the Odd Fellows feel rather proud of the honor of having the Grand Master elected from here.'

The Walla Walla Union says: 'The young man from Hog Eye creek, who wrote scurrilous rhymes to the daughter and then got into a discussion with fists with her father, a short since was indicted, tried and convicted of libel, but was made happy by the Court sustaining a motion to arrest judgment on the grounds that the law under which he had been convicted was no longer of binding force. The Hog Eye poet is happy, and has no terrors of the law any further—all he dreads is the 'old man.''

The Olympia Courier of last Monday says: 'Two ladies and a little child had a narrow escape from drowning yesterday in the bay, below the Tumwater bridge. They were in a small boat near the bridge when the heaviest shower of rain commenced to fall, and attempted to seek shelter under the bridge. In some way the boat upset and all were thrown into the water. Almost by a miracle they all caught hold of the boat and it supported them until they were rescued. They floated down nearly a mile before help came to them.'

A long time ago one Kyger, the County Treasurer of Walla Walla county, defaulted and his estate went into bankruptcy. The Statesman of last Saturday says: 'A dividend of 12½ per cent. has been declared on the Kyger estate. Out of this dividend the sum of $2,181 67 goes to the county. This sum will not cover the expenses incurred by the county in prosecuting the claim. Indeed so far as any benefit to the county is concerned it would have been quite as well if there had never been any attempt to collect the missing $19,000. This is the way county affairs are managed.'

THE INDEPENDENT PARTY IN MISSOURI.—The St. Louis Republican has been considering more attentively the possibilities of a new political movement in that State, and seems to take a brighter view of Senator Schurz's prospects for a re-election than it did a few days ago. It says: 'When Schurz comes to the West to begin his work he will find it not only begun but half finished; for the most difficult part of the task—the detachment of the people from the old parties—has been accomplished, and the great masses to be seen moving somewhat blindly and indefinitely all over the Northwest will instinctively turn to the recognized standard whenever it shall be authoritatively raised and form the new party in a single campaign.'

SWIFT AND SEVERE PUNISHMENT.—A Wilmington (Del.) dispatch of May 14th says: Lewis Robinson came from New Haven, Connecticut, to this city yesterday morning. At noon he attempted to commit rape on a little girl on Market street between Sixth and Seventh streets. He was arrested a few minutes afterward and committed to Newcastle jail. This morning he was arraigned for trial, and this afternoon was convicted and sentenced about 5 o'clock. The time between the commission of the crime and conviction was just 29 hours. He will receive 30 lashes on Saturday, be pilloried one hour, and imprisoned for ten years.

A PECULIAR CASE OF DROWNING.—A special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune dated Burlington, Iowa, May 15th, says: 'At Morning Sun, near this city, on Wednesday a lady named Mrs. Holland met a strange death. She was drawing water from a spring near her house, and when in the act of stooping to draw out the bucket she slipped head first into the spring, which was only four feet deep. It being very small she was unable to move herself and was so drowned. She was a very estimable lady, and her death is greatly mourned.'

MEMORIAL DAY.

Grand Army of the Republic.

The muffled drum's sad roll has beat our comrades' last tattoo,
But the living round their moss-grown graves sweet floral offerings strew,
On Fame's eternal camping ground their silent tents are spread,
While we memorial offerings cast round the bivouac of the dead.

A cordial invitation is extended to all honorably discharged Soldiers, Sailors and Marines, the Military and Fire Departments, Civic and Benevolent Societies, Churches and Sunday Schools to participate with the Grand Army of the Republic in the ceremonies and observances of "DECORATION DAY," May 30th. All honorably discharged Soldiers, Sailors and Marines are requested to meet with the G. A. R. at their Hall, corner of Third and Alder streets, at 1 o'clock P. M. of that day. The Military and Fire Departments, Societies, Churches and Sunday Schools desiring to participate will form on Fourth street, south of Alder, at 2 o'clock P. M. sharp. Donations of flowers for the occasion will be thankfully received by the Committee of Arrangements or by the comrades of Baker and Canby Post at the Hall, on the morning of that day. If friends who desire to make contributions of flowers will notify the Committee stating place of residence, the Committee will call at the house for the donation.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 27 1874

McBRIDE TO THE RESCUE—CAMPBELL OR GROVER FOR GOVERNOR

This morning we publish a letter from McMinnville showing that an old gentle man named McBride, who for a few weeks has been sojourning in Portland, is engaged by the ring managers to make personal appeals to certain persons, with whom he supposes himself to possess influence, in behalf of the election of Tolman for Governor Mr McBride says he is at the "center of gravity of Oregon politics, and knows as much about such matters as any man in the State,' and that he would like extremely well to have "Brother Campbell" elected, but that is impossible, and he only asks those to whom he writes to vote for Tolman as a dernier resort to defeat Grover

Now all that sounds very well, but it is a fraud Let no man trust this individual without first inquiring into his antecedents and surroundings. Who and what is McBride? is the preliminary question and we propose to answer it, not unkindly, but plainly He used to be known as "Dr" McBride, in Yamhill county, where he divided his talents between practising as a sort of doctor, preaching as a sort of preacher, and making himself officious and ridiculous as a sort of politician It is to Yamhill he is sending his letters Belonging to the same religious denomination that Mr Campbell belongs to, he thinks to be able to exercise the greater influence by referring to him as "Brother" Campbell, and pretending to desire his election It is the kiss of Judas Iscariot

Now, as to his superior knowledge of politics He has no knowledge at all. He has no place in political circles here, has been here but a few weeks, runs with the smallest kind of a ring when he runs with anybody, and would not know anything about public sentiment, no matter what might be his opportunities for learning He is utterly incapable of forming any correct judgment on the subject His old neighbors of Yamhill county will bear us out in the assertion that he was always making knowing predictions and always wrong, when he lived there We are not saying he is a bad man when we say he is so constituted as to be constantly pinning his faith to some wild and improbable calculation which ends only in disappointment Who would even think of Dr. McBride as a candidate for U S Senator? And yet, absurd as that proposition is, some incorrigible wag a few years ago went to him and told him that there was a strong sentiment in favor of his election as Senator, and that with a little working up, the thing would take like wildfire, and the poor old man actually believed it, and went to writing long letters to members of the Legislature urging his claims—letters full of the most dismal orthography and syntax that ever any wretched man in the Oregon Legislature or out of it, was bored with We have one of those productions in our possession—and a marvelous production it is Of course when the Legislature met he was not thought of as a candidate We mention this merely by way of illustrating the gullibility of this feeble-minded old gentleman, and his utter incapacity for forming any correct judgment on such matters as he is now writing about.

Furthermore, McBride is and has always been an instrument in the hands of Hipple And, preacher as he is, he stuck to the bigamous Senator through all the disclosures of his impure and immoral life, and only a few months since presided at a meeting at a meeting that actually passed resolutions endorsing Hipple's social record. We do not say this shows him to be a criminal, nor intimate such a thing It simply shows whose hands he is in He don t want Campbell elected, and he only does the bidding of his masters when he writes these letters

Having known who McBride is and what is the power that moves him, it is needless to warn Independent voters against being deceived by him.

This is of a piece with the efforts of Rev Dr Geary of Albany, who is making the same appeal to his personal friends In fact, it is a plan concerted by the ring at Portland and being industriously worked up all over the State People who prefer Mr Campbell's election to Tolman's, but who desire to defeat Grover, are urged to vote for Tolman as the only means of beating Grover It is assumed by the ring for their purpose that Mr Campbell has no chance of an election But this is sheer deception They know better This is the last resort of the ring to secure a respectable vote for their candidate They do not wish to draw away votes from Grover, for they see that the contest is between Grover and Campbell, and they prefer the election of Grover to that of Campbell This is the long and short of the matter Every vote drawn away from Mr Campbell and given to Tolman, will prove to be a vote for Grover. The race between these two will probably be close, and the ring knowing this, are bending all their efforts to reduce Campbell's vote Let no one be deceived.

SHERIFF AND CLERK'S FEES

PORTLAND, May 26 1874

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

It has been intimated in your journal that Mr. Caywood and Mr Harris not content with the enormous revenue of the Sheriff's office and County Clerk's office directly used their influence with the Legislature to get the fees increased Many persons believe this to be an election canard and I confess myself to be of that number, and regret that while there is enough that is truthful to serve the cause of reform that such unreasonable stories should find currency. They only injure a good cause

Yours truly, INDEPENDENT

We can state to our correspondent that the story he refers to is no fiction, nor is it an "election canard" These officers did assist in lobbying the bill through the Legislature to increase their already enormous fees And when the bill had passed, instead of waiting for it to reach the executive for his signature in the ordinary course, Mr Harris, with the Clerk of one of the other populous counties, got hold of the bill and carried it to the Governor and stood by him till he made a brief examination of it and attached his signature Mr. Harris will not deny this statement

THOSE FIGURES

The Clerk and Sheriff of this county, both of them renominated and now asking the votes of the people, make no answer to the figures that have been published showing their enormous grabs out of the people of this county. They are silent And why should they not be silent? The figures are from their own books, and are indisputable The Bulletin attempts to ridicule the subject out of sight making no effort at a bona fide defense on the merits of the matter but contenting itself with a general denial and a dozen exclamations over the magnitude of the totals They are enough to make anybody exclaim, and they do make every one exclaim, on first seeing them But they are true, nevertheless, and that is what makes the matter so very important

Let no voter forget these figures They are from the record and they cannot be gainsaid Messrs Harris and Caywood have been challenged to an investigation in which they should be represented by an accountant of their own choosing and they have declined the proposition Amazing as these figures are, they represent the exact facts as they were taken from the records of the county, and as they can be verified by any competent accountant who will take the pains to go through those records

We give these figures again, that every voter may have an opportunity of seeing again what is the cause of our extraordinary taxation, and where the money goes From June 30th 1872, to June 30th 1873, one year the Clerk was paid by the county $6,373 31 Now, this does not include his fees in civil suits and proceedings at law, in Probate cases for percentage on moneys collected, for recording deeds, mortgages, etc for taking and certifying acknowledgments, for authenticating records, for taking depositions to be used in other places, etc It is well known to every one who is at all familiar with the business of the courts, that the civil business is very greatly in excess of the criminal Persons well calculated to make the estimate, being acquainted with the requirements of the office, say the civil business is equal to twice the county business But suppose, for the sake of being on safe ground, we say the fees from the county make 40 per cent of the entire income of the Clerk On this estimate, his income for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1873, was $15,933 27

But even this princely revenue was by no means equal to that which he is receiving during the current year For the ten and a half months, from June 30, 1873, to May 15, 1874 (the present month), the Clerk has received from the county alone $7,357 99, which rate, carried to the end of the year, would give his fees against the county for the year ending June 30, 1874 $8,409 13, and his entire fees, civil and county together, $21,022 72 Just think of that a moment W H Harris, a good accountant, say, who could command a salary of $150 or $200 per month in a mercantile house, receives from the people over twenty one thousand dollars a year!

Now for the Sheriff The fees paid this officer by the county from June 30, 1872, to June 30, 1873, amounted to $15,556 96 The proportion of fees for civil business in this office is not so great as in the Clerk's, being probably not over fifty per cent of the entire fees So the Sheriff's total fees for the year ending June 30, 1873, would be $31,113 92

But for the present year the income is greatly increased for the same ten and a half months for which the Clerk's receipts have been stated, ending the 15th of the present month the Sheriff received from the county, including $5,100 per centage on taxes collected, $17,369 39, which would give for the twelve months ending June 30, 1874, from the county $19,850 72 This being estimated at fifty per cent of the entire revenue of the office, the total income for the current year would be $39 701 44, Thirty nine thousand seven hundred and one dollars, and forty four cents for the services of Mr J M Caywood for one year!

REASON FOR YOURSELVES AND DON'T BE HUMBUGGED

The ring say Tolman will get more votes than Campbell We should like to know upon what theory they base this estimate Last fall the Bulletin, ring organ, told its readers from day to day that Hiram Smith would be elected But Hiram Smith was beaten by a large majority He carried only forty four per cent of recorded Republican vote of the State Now, where is Tolman to get his strength? Fifty four per cent of all the Republicans refused to support Smith because he was regarded as the representative of the Custom House railway ring Will those Republicans who withheld their votes from Smith, now give them to Tolman? They will not That may be taken for a rule almost without an exception And a good many who voted for Smith did it under protest, would have voted for an Independent candidate had one been running, and now declare their purpose to vote for Campbell Campbell will receive [illegible] per cent of the Republican vote of the State, and he will be the next Governor of Oregon And Mr J C Tolman will be the hindmost man in the race, by more than [illegible] The Bulletin's editorial predictions in this case will come out just as they did in the case of Hiram Smith who was in every way more acceptable to the people than Tolman

The readers of the ring organ will recollect that it stated that Mr Raleigh Stott Independent candidate for Representative said in one of his speeches in a country precinct that he was in favor of the State's purchasing the Locks Mr Stott called upon the associate editorship of the Bulletin for his authority for such a statement, and was told that Mr Caples had so informed the Bulletin The whole story is a falsehood made of whole cloth. Mr Stott in his remarks expressly said he was opposed to the purchase It is wholly immaterial whether this is the Bulletin's lie or Caples' It shows the unprincipled tactics of the ring in either case We greatly mistake, or the people will repudiate the whole crew who resort to such base means to carry out their purposes

We republish this morning a tabular statement of the extra expenses of the government of this State during the present administration to the amount of $197 000 It is a document that cannot be too well studied by the voters of the State

THE REVOLT IN EASTERN OREGON

When His Excellency, L F Grover left Willamette Valley to enter on the canvas of Eastern Oregon, it was with the knowledge that here in the counties west of Cascade mountains he was a defeated candidate His friends were baffled and discouraged They had labored with indefatigable energy to bolster up the failing cause of their chief but altogether uselessly The tide of public opinion had set in against Mr Grover and there was no such thing as breasting it They confessed this Indeed during the past two weeks it has been generally conceded by the shrewdest Democratic politicians of the city that the wholesale defection of Democrats in Lane Linn Benton Marion and Polk counties [illegible] the outlook for Gov Grover very gloomy in the Valley The canvass of Western Oregon having been completed and the prospect for a re election having assumed such an unfavorable hue the eyes of all men were turned to Eastern Oregon These same shrewd politicians said

We grant that Campbell will draw largely from Grover and that he will get the larger part of the Republicans who refused to vote for the Hipple resolution last October but he can get no votes in Eastern Oregon—Grover will carry Umatilla, Baker Union and Wasco by overwhelming majorities They pinned their faith to Eastern Oregon It was the Gibraltar of Democracy—invincible impregnable birth place of enormous majorities

The canvass of Eastern Oregon is completed and Governor Grover has returned to the Valley knowing as well as mortal man can know any event before its happening that he will be beaten, in the very counties on which he relied and had a right to rely by overwhelming majorities We speak whereof we know when we say that Wasco, Umatilla and Baker will each give a handsome majority for Mr Campbell We say majority because in Eastern Oregon everybody understands that the fight is between Campbell and Grover Wherever Tolman has gone he has made an utter failure, If Tolman gets 300 votes in that section he will get just about 100 more than we are willing to concede now In those five counties Hiram Smith received last October, 614 votes Let any sane man say that such a man as Tolman can command half the strength of a man like Hiram Smith! In Eastern Oregon the Independent county movements have done much to wean voters of both the old parties from their allegiance to the State tickets It was Governor Grover's misfortune to enter the unequal contest with the accusation that he had sacrificed Mr Nesmith to his own personal ambition still unanswered This with the burden of his disastrous administration, has proven his utter ruin As for Tolman he has done even worse than he did in this valley But there never was any chance of Tolman's election He was out of the fight the very minute he was pushed into it

Readers of the OREGONIAN know that we have never overstated, never overestimated the result of any political contest One week before the October election we said Hiram Smith would be beaten by 1,000 majority—he was beaten by 2 071 majority We now say that T F Campbell will carry Eastern Oregon by a handsome plurality We shall not be deceived And that means T F Campbell will be the next Governor of Oregon Of this we have not the faintest doubt

We can not for the life of us conceive any reason why the Custom House ring should affect such extreme mortification over the discovery that their scurrilous little sheet issued last Saturday under the title 'Our Extra' was really a Bulletin Extra What new sense of the criminality of bearing an assumed and false name for the purpose of covering up other crimes has seized them now? Their acknowledged chief lived in Oregon for thirteen years under a false name, assumed to prevent the discovery of felonies committed by him, and would have been doing so still had not his fraudulent election to the United States Senate led to the exposure of his fraudulent name And recently at the suggestion of this same refugee from justice a man has been appointed to a high office who has been for years living in this city under an assumed name, because his true name being known might lead to his arrest for the crime of murder committed in another section of the Republic Why, then, should the discovery of an offense so comparatively venial as that of issuing under a false name the little batch of lies of last Saturday evening affect the equilibrium of the ring nerves so greatly? Are not ring managers straining at a gnat and swallowing at least two very large camels?

The Bulletin is extremely sensitive on the subject of that lying extra it issued last Saturday evening Its managers had no more sagacity than to suppose the meaningless heading which they placed at the top of the little sheet Our Extra would be sufficient to mislead the public Ashamed of the thing they call it Our Extra instead of 'Bulletin Extra, and now they are in agony over the fact that their fraud was too thin to hide the truth and that the real paternity of the lying circular is known They should have known better than ever to have supposed the people of Portland could be deceived by so transparent a device It was impossible to look at the scurrilous little sheet from any point, without seeing the long ears of the Custom House animal whose stupidity is the only quality which excels his knavery Well said Mr Associate Editorship since that is all you can do

Mr T H Cann informs us since our publication of his statement in regard to that swamp land application containing the name of Richard Williams that he has learned (since our interview with him) that the names were signed to the application by Joel Ware of Eugene City Henry Owens was the real party in interest and several of the names were used without consulting the parties themselves

This item appeared in yesterday's Statesman We have a note from Mr T H Cann referring to this item and [illegible] he did not make the statement given in the Statesman He said only that he thought the hand writing resembled Joel Ware and [illegible] the use of the names of other parties except that he had reason to believe the name of one of the parties (which he specified) was used without his consent [illegible] Will [illegible]

The [illegible] of the Custom House ring through their organ the Bulletin [illegible] Mr [illegible] is an attorney of the Locks Company Mr [illegible] at [illegible] was an attorney or counsel of the Locks Company But he made a speech in favor of the people [illegible] the ring and that with the Bulletin is reason enough for [illegible] upon him which they have ingenuity to invent

The Committee of the House to which were referred the charges against Durell the infamous Louisiana Judge who was the tool of the New Orleans Custom House ring in their election frauds have decided to report articles of impeachment against him That will end the career of one more corrupt scoundrel

The announcement that Mr Campbell would speak at McMinnville next Thursday evening is corrected His appointments are announced elsewhere C A Ball and W Lair Hill will speak at McMinnville Thursday evening commencing at 8 o clock

CITY.

COLUMBIA RISING.—At present the Columbia river is rising at the rate of about 15 inches every 24 hours at Wallula. The impression exists that as immense quantities of snow have fallen during the past winter the stage of water this season will be very high. A gentleman just from Lewiston, informs us that but limited quantities of snow have fallen in the mountains last winter, as compared with past years. But little snow can be seen by no on any of the mountain ranges in the vicinity of Lewiston and it is thought among the oldest inhabitants that the Columbia and Snake rivers will not be very high this season. However that is merely conjectural and there is no means of determining the quantities of snow which have fallen. The rugged and tortuous Snake heads far away south in the Three Tetons almost within the limits of Dakota and Wyoming and passes through numerous mountain ranges which are doubtless covered with snow that will melt under the influence of a May and June sun and contribute towards swelling that brawling stream to a mighty torrent. Every appearance indicates a high stage of water in both the Columbia, Snake and Wallamet.

EXCURSION TO ASTORIA.—About 1 o clock yesterday the W R T Co s new and elegant steamer Willamette Chief arrived at this city from up the river, having on board several hundred farmers, bound on an excursion down to Astoria. Many of the farmers were accompanied by their wives and daughters. The steamer came in very handsomely to her moorings at Central wharf with streamers gaily flying, and the Albany Brass Band discoursing a lively air. It was the intention to have continued on down the river yesterday evening, but other arrangements were determined upon and the excursionists remained over night here. This morning at 5 o clock the steamer will leave the wharf, bound for Astoria. A number from this city will accompany the excursion. The boat will not return until day after to-morrow. During the sojourn of the excursionists at Astoria, a grand ball will be given in honor of the event. A splendid time may be anticipated. The OREGONIAN will contain a lengthy account of the incidents, etc., of the excursion.

IN QUARANTINE.—The steamship John L. Stephens arrived at this port from San Francisco last evening about half past 7 o clock, but she was not allowed to land at the Company s dock as a case of smallpox was reported on board. Since the steamer left Astoria bound up the river symptoms were developed in a small child who had been ailing most of the passage, which induced the belief that the disease was smallpox. The authorities therefore would not permit the steamer to land at the dock, but required her to moor alongside the west side railroad wharf just below the city. Drs Kinney and Strong were immediately sent for to examine the case. These physicians went on board the vessel and made the necessary investigations. Of the result of their examinations we are unadvised. Up to a late hour last evening none of the passengers were permitted to leave the steamer. To-day the result will be more fully known. We sincerely trust that the reported case may prove untrue.

UNION TEMPERANCE MEETING.—The Union Temperance Meeting last evening was addressed by Dr Atkinson, Rev. Mr Medbury and Mesdames Watkins, Mitchell, Dr Thompson, W P Jones, Royal, Corson, Reed, Briggs, Misses Sutherland, Pierpont, Sparrow Quack[illegible] and Duniway. The essay by Mrs [illegible] was very good, the Recitation of Mrs [illegible] was deeply felt and the readings by Mrs Royal and Mrs. Dr Thompson filled with wise words and good counsel. This evening the ladies will again have charge of the meeting. The ladies will promise their [illegible] some good words from all parts of the land.

APRON TO BE BUILT.—A petition was presented to the Board of Trustees of East Portland several weeks ago in relation to the construction of an apron at the foot of J street. The petitioners stated that at present it was very difficult to get down to the river from Water street and that it might be of great importance to obtain easy and rapid access to the water in the event of an extensive fire. They desired the Board to cause an apron to be constructed at that place. At the last meeting [illegible] authorized the construction of an [illegible] the foot of J street, such as was asked [illegible] will be a great public convenience.

SALMON FISHING.—A gentleman from down the river informs us that for a few days past there has been a very large run of salmon, and all the fisheries are doing an immense business. During the present fishing season some very large salmon have been caught. Last week a salmon was captured at one of the fisheries nearly four feet long, and weighing 64 pounds. At Warren's Fishery a few nights since a [illegible] salmon was entrapped in the nets which weighed full 73 pounds. This is, we believe, the heaviest fish of the kind yet caught in the Columbia river.

ELECTRIC ENGINE.—It is stated that Col H R Leonard and those interested with him have contracted with the Willamet Iron Works for the construction of a 5-horse power electric [illegible], which is to be completed within a couple of weeks. The engine is to be constructed of brass, in order to do away with the local attraction which iron would create, and will in all respects be a first class piece of machinery. The batteries for this engine have already been ordered in San Francisco, and may shortly be expected to arrive.

STOCK BOOKS OPEN.—Only a few days ago articles of incorporation were filed in the County Clerk's office by the Hibernian Saving and Loan Society. We understand that the [illegible] of establishing a bank of the character proposed, in Portland, is meeting with much favor among our citizens. The books of the corporation are now open, and it is [illegible] that the necessary stock will soon be subscribed.

POLL BOOKS.—Yesterday the Deputy Clerk E. E. Borthwick, was engaged in preparing the poll books of the county. Each precinct is entitled to two books. As there are 16 precincts in the county the Clerk was required to make out 32 poll books. Last evening the books were finished and delivered into the hands of the Sheriff, who will distribute them to the various judges of election.

JUNE TERM.—One week from next Monday—June 8th—the regular term of Circuit Court for Multnomah county will convene. There will be a full docket to dispose of. Attorneys should bear in mind that papers instituting suits which are to be tried at this term of Court must be filed in the County Clerk's office ten days prior to the meeting of the court.

WELL DONE.—A Mr Lebow of Forest Grove, started on foot from that place early yesterday morning and arrived in this city about noon, making the distance in twelve hours. He is seventy nine years of age and does things equally as marvelous almost daily. He came to the city to meet his son whom he expects on the steamer.

REMEMBER THE SPEAKING.—The public are requested to bear in mind that Hon A C Gibbs will speak at Oro Fino Theater to-morrow (Thursday) evening. Everybody is invited to attend. A cordial invitation is extended to the ladies. Let the house be jammed.

SCHOONER HERA.—This craft, which for several days has been discharging freight at the Central wharf, was towed down to the Steamship Company's dock. Only a portion of the freight was discharged, the remainder will be taken out at the lower wharf.

DRAWN OFF.—A few days ago the O. S. N Co s steamer Cayuse was drawn off the line on the upper Columbia, for the present, as the spring rush of freight is over. The steamers Tenino and Yakima are still on the line.

Governor Gibbs speaks to night at Forest Grove.

The schooner Hera dropped down to Holladay's wharf yesterday where the balance of cargo will be discharged. The evening paper said she came near colliding with the O S N Co s wharf. Well that is the thinnest story told by ye local of the aforesaid paper for some time. In passing down she was not at any time within a hundred yards of the O S N Co s wharf

The irritating and irrepressible poison disseminated by the oak vine is performing its work in a quiet and tolerably unostentatious manner in the "rural districts." Recently a mother and eight children residing up the valley—thoughtlessly lunched among some poison oak vines and are now incapacitated from attending to any duties pertaining to the household. As the husband and father stalks about the house aproned and dotted with flour and dough, he is wont to view the picnic season in a dark light and his heart is full of bitterness.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS' MEETING.

PORTLAND, May 26 1874

A meeting of the Board of Directors of School District No 1 was held at the office of J D Holman this afternoon.

Full Board present viz: President Dr J G Glenn and Messrs J C Ainsworth and A H Morgan.

Minutes of the last meeting read and approved also the minutes of the meeting of May 7th, which were read at the last meeting, but deemed incomplete, were read as amended, and approved.

The following bills were approved and warrants ordered drawn: A G Walling, $23 50; O S Phelps $10; J K Gill & Co $27 25. The bill of S J McCormick for $164 was, by his own consent reduced to $150 approved, and a warrant ordered drawn for the same.

A communication from Messrs J K Gill & Co was read and ordered to be placed on file.

Sundry bills for furnishing stationery for the schools of this district for the remainder of the present school year were opened and that of C C Barrett being the lowest, was on motion accepted.

The following resolution was, on motion, adopted:

Resolved, That it is desirable to procure the best talent to teach in the Public Schools and to that end invitations are hereby extended to persons wishing situations as teachers to make application in writing addressed to the Board of Directors of School District No 1, giving reference and, stating position desired, said application to be presented by July 1st 1874.

The following preamble and resolution was adopted:

It having recently come to the knowledge of this Board that some of the teachers employed by this District have closed their schools during school hours in order to give their pupils a picnic excursion; therefore be it

Resolved, That from and after this date any teacher who shall close his school during school hours for the purpose of giving his pupils a picnic excursion, or for any other purpose (illness excepted), without first having obtained the written consent of a majority of the School Board shall be dismissed from the position of teacher.

On motion, Rev G H Atkinson, D D, was selected by the Board to serve on the Examining Committee for the promotion of pupils.

Having no further business on motion adjourned.

J D HOLMAN, School Clerk

BASE BALL NOTES.

The Arcadian Base Ball Club have selected the following nine: Jack Mathews c, John Bird, p, Wm Pratt s s, W A Hart 1st b, Al Raleigh 2d b, Henry McCraken 3d b and Captain H W Cushing, l f, C Ferguson, c f, John Williams, r f, Geo McBride, sub. Matthews Raleigh and Cushing were last year members of the Pacific Club, and played well during the season in the same positions they now hold. Bird and Hart played last season with the first nine of the Pioneer Club the former retaining his position and the latter leaving right field. McCraken was last year in the second nine of the Pioneers as pitcher. Pratt played behind the bat for the Clackamas club last year very well. The balance of the nine are strangers to us. On the whole, we consider the nine capable of giving other clubs all they can do to win. They have challenged the Pioneers for a series of three games like wise the College Club. Keep the ball rolling, boys.

BUSINESS NOTICES

Once more that enterprising firm Bradley Marsh & Co advise the ladies through the advertising columns of the OREGONIAN of their late importations. In the late additions to the stock is a large invoice of table linens which they are offering at a great sacrifice. The beautiful store is crowded with goods of every description and an attentive corps of salesmen are always in readiness to attend to the wants of customers. Among the numerous articles for which this firm are agents, in store is the Carbolic Sheep Wash. This wash has won high honors in various Expositions and certainly must be all that is claimed for it. The beautiful photographs displayed in the show windows attract numbers to their store. In fact everything is attractive, and that is the reason the ladies flock to Bradley Marsh & Co s.

SHIPPING NOTES.

Due on Saturday—the schooner [illegible] of the Star Line. She [illegible] only three days and brings almost [illegible] tons.

The schooner [illegible] went down on Saturday [illegible] with ten tons of iron from the Oswego Iron Works. She will complete [illegible] probably sail this evening.

PICNICS

To morrow the City [illegible] give their first picnic. We trust the weather will be suited to the occasion and postponement made unnecessary. The grove selected is situate about ten miles up the Willamette. The East Portland Band will assist materially to enliven the occasion and we doubt not but that the affair will prove agreeable and pleasant to all.

FAIR AND FESTIVAL.

The ladies of the Baptist Church will give a strawberry and ice cream festival at the basement of the church on Wednesday evening June 3d.

AMUSEMENTS.

Lost in London a beautiful four act drama from the pen of Dion Boucicault was rendered for the first time at Oro Fino Theater to a fair audience last evening. This beautiful domestic drama was put on the stage in the best possible manner and its rendition through it was artistic and satisfactory. Madame Phelps as Tilly Dragglethorpe a rough but [illegible] and hearted Lancashire lass was very effective and did some fine acting. Her sister Miss Morgan as the false but subsequently deeply repentant wife assumed the role of Nelly Armroyd in style which clearly indicated a thorough conception of the character and much patient study. Miss Morgan is entitled to receive great credit for her effort. She did some admirable acting which we are gratified to note met with deserved appreciation on the part of the audience. We cannot omit to make a complimentary allusion to Mr Barrows who personated the deeply wronged husband, Job Armroyd. The role is decidedly heavy but for a young and comparatively inexperienced actor Mr Barrows acquitted himself handsomely and his efforts far exceeded the expectations of his friends. The young man is making very noticeable proficiency. Mr E J Crowell as Sir Gilbert Featherstone acted with his usual good taste and our bland young friend W Simms, as Blinker a valet, was a trump and no mistake. Miss Minnie Fixley an old favorite with theater goers who has just been added to the troupe played Topps very acceptably. Immediately following the drama came a musical melange in which Miss Morgan appeared and won as usual several encores, also Barrows and Simms who took immensely in the duet of "Two Old Maids." This evening will be rendered "The Actress by Daylight" and a roaring farce. For months our theater goers have been gasping for amusements and now that there is a company in the city worthy of patronage we hope that it may be supported. If it is not patronized then Portland does not deserve to have amusements.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY.

HALSEY May 25 1874.

At a regular meeting of Valley Lodge No 155 I O G T a committee was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiments of this lodge in regard to the heroic and Christian conduct of certain Christian ladies called the Crusaders of Portland. The committee reported the following:

Resolved, That in the crusade we recognize the divine guidance.

Resolved, That we offer to those Christian ladies our sympathy and our prayers for their support from above.

Resolved, That we extend to them the right hand of fellowship as co workers in the great temperance reform.

Resolved, That we condemn the arrest of said ladies as not only mean, tyrannical, cowardly and ungentlemanly but also as a relic of heathenish barbarism.

Resolved, That we request the publication of the foregoing preamble and resolutions in the P C Advocate, Temperance Star and DAILY OREGONIAN.

PORTLAND LIBRARY.

The following list of new books has just been received and added to the Portland Library:

Presented by Dr G E Cooper. The History of the Indian Meeting by Chas Ball illustrated with battle scenes views of places, portraits and maps, beautifully engraved on steel 2 vols.

By Rev T L Eliot. Æsopics or Second Collection of Fables Paraphrased in Verse adorned with sculpture and illustrated with annotations, by John Ogilby Esq, Master of His Majesty's Revels in the Kingdom of Ireland London 1668.

By Dr S Parker. In His Name by E E Hale.

By James Goldsmith Esq. The Washington Daily Intelligencer of Saturday, April 22 1826.

PERSONAL.

Mr T F Campbell arrived in the city last evening. He is in splendid condition and comes back with the assurance that Eastern Oregon will go Independent by a handsome plurality. Mr Campbell goes to Monmouth to day. From his appointments which will be found in another place it will be seen that he intends to make the three days between this day and the election exceedingly lively for his opponents.

THAT MANHATTAN CLUB JOLLIFICATION.—The Chicago Times is not so enthusiastic over the late Manhattan Club gathering as some other Democratic newspapers. It speaks of it disrespectfully, calls it "a gathering of the dead," "a kind of lovefeast among some ancient skeletons from the graveyard of the ancient Bourbon party," and says "the assembled skeletons shook one another's bony hands, smiled as skeletons are wont to do, and rattled their old bones in forced gleefulness over the drawn battles in New Hampshire and Connecticut which it pleased them to call Democratic victories." It also speaks of "the putrid remains" styled the Democratic party and in various ways hints at a state of feeling not entirely friendly to the corpse.

A FATAL FIGHT WITH MAIL ROBBERS.—The St Louis Republican of May 14th has a special dispatch from Springfield Mo stating that a mail carrier and a Mr Tonett who was riding with him were robbed a day or two ago in Cayton Pinery and the mail rifled. The robbers were tracked by a party of twenty men to Boone county Ark, and in a fight with them Rev Mr New was killed and another man seriously wounded. The robbers escaped. Mr New was minister of the Methodist church, and had but recently come from Iowa.

DISSATISFACTION AMONG JAY COOKE & CO'S CREDITORS.—A Washington dispatch of May 10th says: The creditors of Jay Cooke & Co in this city are somewhat blue over the prospects of a satisfactory adjustment of their balances. The proposition from Philadelphia to pay 15 per cent cash and 85 per cent in securities of nominal value, creates great disgust. The most important creditors will be slow to accept these terms. They denounce the bankrupt act as one reason for the small dividend as the officials are allowed exorbitant fees and the other expenses allowed by the law consume a large share of the cash.

A Jackson Michigan dispatch of May 1[illegible] says:

A train coming in on the Fort Wayne road about noon to day discovered the body of a man sitting by the fence six miles south of here. Inspection showed that he had hung himself by tying a strap to the top board of the fence and leaning forward in such a manner as to produce death. It is supposed that his name was A. Linder. In a [illegible] pocket was [illegible] on which was written "[illegible] No work no money."

WHERE DOES IT COME FROM;

Pints and quarts of filthy catarrhal discharges. Where does it all come from? The mucous membrane lining the chambers of the nose and its little glands are diseased so that they draw from the blood its liquid and exposure to the air changes it into corruption. This life liquid was to build up the system but it is extracted and the system is weakened by the loss. To cure, gain flesh and strength by using Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which also acts directly upon these glands, correcting them applying Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy with Dr Pierce's Nasal Douche the only method of reaching the upper cavities where the discharge accumulates and comes from.

McBRIDE TO THE RESCUE—CAMPBE OR GROVER FOR GOVERNOR

This morning we publish a letter fr McMinnville, showing that an old gen man, named McBride, who for a weeks has been sojourning in Portla is engaged by the ring managers to m personal appeals to certain persons, w whom he supposes himself to possess fluence in behalf of the election of man for Governor Mr McBride says as at the center of gravity of Oreg politics and knows as much about s matters as any man in the state,' a that he would like extremely well to ha "Brother Campbell elected, but tha impossible, and he only asks those whom he writes to vote for Tolman a dernier resort to defeat Grover

Now all that sounds very well but i a fraud Let no man trust this individ without first inquiring into his antece ents and surroundings Who and what McBride? is the preliminary questio and we propose to answer it, not unkind but plainly He used to be known "Dr" McBride, in Yamhill county, whe he divided his talents between practisi as a sort of doctor, preaching as sort of preacher, and making himse officious and ridiculous as a sort of po litician. It is to Yamhill he is sending h letters Belonging to the same religio denomination that Mr Campbell belon to, he thinks to be able to exercise th greater influence by referring to him "Brother" Campbell, and pretending desire his election It is the kiss Judas Iscariot

Now, as to his superior knowledge politics He has no knowledge at all h has no place in political circles here, h been here but a few weeks, runs with th smallest kind of a ring when he runs wit anybody, and would not know anythin about public sentiment, no matter wha might be his opportunities for learning He is utterly incapable of forming an correct judgment on the subject His ol neighbors of Yamhill county will bear u out in the assertion that he was alway making knowing predictions and alwa wrong, when he lived there. We are no saying he is a bad man when we say he is so constituted as to be constantly pinning his faith to some wild and im probable calculation which ends only in disappointment Who would even think of Dr McBride as a candidate for U S Senator? And yet, absurd as that propo sition is, some incorrigible wag a few years ago went to him and told him that there was a strong sentiment in favor of his election as Senator, and that with a little working up, the thing would take like wildfire, and the poor old man actually believed it, and went to writing long let ters to members of the Legislature urging his claims—letters full of the most dismal orthography and syntax that ever any wretched man in the Oregon Legislature or out of it, was bored with We have one of those productions in our possession— and a marvelous production it is. Of course when the Legislature met he was not thought of as a candidate We mention this merely by way of ill

LEECHES

Leeches abound in large numbers in marshes in France, Sweden, and Hungary The head fisher, with his legs and arms naked, walks along the borders of a marsh, and, as he moves, among the pools, the leeches attach themselves to his legs and feet Their presence is indicated by their bite, which he feels, and he raises his legs and picks the leeches off Some are found about the roots of seaweed, and beneath the moss-covered shores in the moss, while others swim about in the shallow, muddy water, but so slowly that they are easily gathered with the hand The leecher carries a little bag on his shoulder, in which he deposits the leeches as fast as he catches them. In the spring the leech-fisher sometimes has a kind of a spear or harpoon, with which he places pieces of decayed animal matter in the localities frequented by leeches, which soon gather around the bait, and are collected in a little vessel half full of water In the summer, however, they retire into deeper water The fishers then have to strip and walk in the water up to the chin. Some of them have little rafts to go upon, made of twigs and rushes, but it is difficult to propel them among the weeds and aquatic plants At this season the supply in the pools is scanty, the fisher can only take the few that swim within his reach or those that get entangled in the structure of his raft. The business is a horrible one The leech gatherer is constantly in the water, breathing the noxious air of the marshes, and exposed to attacks of the ague, rheumatism, etc. His sunken eyes, hollow cheeks, livid lips and woe-begone aspect give him the appearance of a patient just from the sick bed. The leech fishery gives employment to many hands, and, although pernicious, is lucrative They are exported in great quantities, and are able to bear hard usage The trader buys his leeches pele-mele, but he afterward sorts them for the market Those generally accounted the best are the Swedish leeches.

A TOUGH YARN

The following story is strange enough not to be true, but as we are constantly reminded that truth is stranger than fiction possibly we had better swallow it, as the horse did the silver box, and say nothing about it. The story first appeared in 1850, and now it is taken from the "scrap book" of Dr Robert Chambers "The contractor for slaughtering horses at Montfacon purchased, a short time ago, a lot of old worn out animals including several which belonged to the army In cutting up one of the aged military horses, a man named Matelot was astonished to find a small silver box, in which were a cross of the Legion of Honor and a paper, in a perfect state of preservation, containing the following lines. 'As I cannot survive the defeat of my Emperor, and, as I have neither wife, nor child, nor cousins, I am about to get myself killed in a last charge against the English, and, as I will not let them have my cross, I will make my faithful horse, Chateau Margot, swallow it He will give it up when he can. Pierre Dardenne, Sergeant in the Second Squadron of Red Lancers' Matelot took the things to the Commissary of Police of the District, and that functionary allowed him to keep the silver box As for the Cross, it was sent to the Grand Chancellerie of the Legion of Honor From documents published by the Professors of the Ecole d'Alfort, it appears that certain horses have lived to the age of 45, that which Charles XII rode at the battle of Pultowa attained that age The white charger of Napoleon lived 29 years Chateau Margot is supposed to have been about 40 He had been made to swallow the box at the battle of Waterloo, in which his master willfully perished. The box had accordingly been in his stomach 35 years.

The monotony and regularity which characterizes operations in our local money market precludes the idea of extended comment to give an idea of the situation of affairs This monotony is more manifest this week than usual owing to the political questions which agitate the public mind but upon the settlement of which we hope to be able to note more activity in business lines The demand for loanable funds is limited and while lenders are not urging money upon the market borrowers who offer first class collateral find but little difficulty in securing favor Upon the opening of the fall trade the demand for purposes of moving the crops will be large, and will induce a much greater closeness in financial circles than is now prevalent

From our Eastern exchanges we learn that the receipts of internal revenue up to the middle of May for the fiscal year are $86,000 000 leaving $11 000 000 to be received during the remainder of this month and June to reach the estimate made by the Commissioners of $110 000 000 for the fiscal year ending with June The receipts since the 1st of May have been $8 000 000 for the month of May 1873 they were $1 [illegible] 000 May is the heaviest month in the year when special taxes are paid It is estimated that receipts for the present May will be $10 000 000

Nearly three millions of dollars in gold were drawn from the Bank of England week before last in consequence of which the rate of discount was raised a half per cent It is said that France is drawing gold from the Bank of England just now with the view of resuming specie payments During the period of suspension the notes of the Bank of France have been but a fraction below par If the Bank of France can resume specie payments so soon after emerging from a disastrous war in which her armies were overwhelmed her Government revolutionized and she compelled to part with $1,000 000 000 in gold to purchase peace the Buffalo Express thinks it would seem as though our Government ought to prepare to follow her example by taking early measures to bring about a like result in this country

Our Foreign Trade.

The following exhibit of the foreign trade of the United States shows the trade balance for the first quarter of the current year, as compiled by the Washington Bureau of Statistics By comparison with the same time in 1873 it will be seen that we imported $22 981 621 less goods in the first three months of 1874 than in the former year and exported $25 876 021 more, an exceedingly gratifying showing

During the first quarter in 1873 the exports of the United States aggregated $148 621,[illegible] domestic and $3,029 823 foreign merchandise, and $15 731 117 domestic and $1 779 233 foreign specie the total exports being $169 162,13[illegible] Since April 1st however the drain of treasure from New York has been heavier than in the period above noted During the week ending May 9th the amount shipped from that port was $2 523 000 the largest weekly aggregate in several months. There were four shipments to England and one to Hamburg—$2,404 000 mostly in gold and silver The remainder went to Cuba. The total shipped from Jan 1st to March 9th is $13 340 000 against $18 147 000 for the same time in 1873, and $10 764 000 in 1872. The low rate of interest in New York and other Eastern commercial centers has [illegible] withdrawal of some foreign capital [illegible] It is also the period for the disbursement of some $16 000 000 interest on Government bonds, lately held in Europe and a portion is ordered to be paid in London and Hamburg

The Wool Market.

We are in receipt of information that in all parts of the State the wool clip will be unusually large In the dry climate of Eastern Oregon the shearing season is well advanced but in this valley the recent rains have had the effect to somewhat delay operations in this respect The receipts at this point as yet have been limited to a few lots but are increasing We note the arrival of considerable quantities within the past two days from up the Columbia and a few small lots from the valley Next week we shall expect greatly increased receipts and an active market Offers here are free and the number of buyers are increasing, so that competition is likely to keep rates up to the best figure that the Eastern markets which now look favorable for holders will justify Some superior lots have changed hands at 25 cents per pound

The San Francisco Call of the 21st inst, says The past has probably been the most active week in wool ever known to the trade in this city Three houses report sales of 600 000 lbs, 750 000 lbs and 450 000 lbs respectively, which, with the sales of other dealers, will bring the aggregate up to at least 2,350,000 lbs The graders have work for at least ten days ahead, and much difficulty is found in providing storage for the immense quantities now coming forward Prices remain the same as last quoted viz Short staple, 18@22c, medium, 23@24c long 25@26c extra 27c ℔ lb

A Boston dispatch of the 20th says the market for domestic wool is quite firm, with a steady demand from manufacturers and comparatively small stocks for the season the supply of domestic fleeces being reduced to a lower point than for many years past. The English market is also quite firm and for California wool there continues to be so much competition that prices rule higher in San Francisco than in the Eastern market Indications now point to high opening prices for the next clip, and manufacturers are disposed to send agents through the West without limit as to price There must be a settling down in prices of wool after the excitement that follows the opening subsidies Fleeces are selling at 57a62c for combing and delaine

Resolved 1 That the compensation of Clerk and Sheriff of this county should be fixed salaries not exceeding for the Sheriff $[illegible] and for the Clerk $3000 per year, that the law allowing fees to these officers, taxable against the county should be repealed and their other fees should be reduced to the rates allowed under the law of 1870 such fees (except milage of Sheriff) to be collected by the respective officers and paid into the County Treasury that each of these officers should be allowed such number of deputies as the County Court consisting of the Judge and Commissioners should determine to be necessary and such deputies should be paid out of the County Treasury salaries not exceeding $100 per month each

2 That there is no necessity for more than one Assessor, Treasurer or tax-collector for the city and county and the duties of [illegible] each of these officers could be performed quite as well and more economically by a single officer for both city and county the compensation for such duties to be apportioned between the city and county according to a fair estimate of the work required by each

3 That the appropriation out of the County Treasury of moneys as salaries for jailor and janitor is a violation of law and a disregard of the interests of the people of Multnomah county, and the candidates named by this Committee for Judge and Commissioners are pledged if elected to discontinue such appropriations as well as all others not necessary in the administration of county affairs

4. That the Charter of Portland should be so amended as to make the Board of Police Commissioners consist of the Mayor of the city (who should be the President of the Board) and two Commissioners appointed by the Governor and the Common Council should have power to fix the number of police officers by ordinance

5 That we heartily approve of the exertions of our delegation in Congress in behalf of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake railroad that we regard the building of said road as essential to the development of this city and State and the candidates named by this Committee for the Legislature are instructed to secure if possible such legislation as shall give the right of way for said road through this State and to endeavor to secure the adoption of a memorial asking Congress to aid said road

6 That there should be passed an efficient law providing for the registration of voters to prevent frauds in election

7 That the candidates named by this Committee for the Legislature are pledged to endeavor if elected to secure legislation in accordance with these resolutions and to exercise and demand the most rigid economy in all departments of the public service and to reduce taxation in every practicable way.

FISH CHOLERA

TREMENDOUS EXCITEMENT IN MILWAUKEE [illegible] CONDITION OF THE [illegible] LAKE FISH [illegible]

MILWAUKEE Wis May 14—The fish which inhabit the murky waters of our river are suffering with an epidemic which generally proves fatal and on the surface of the river may be seen thousands of dead and dying suckers The bodies of the dead are covered with spots of a yellowish hue which on examination are found to be alive with animalcula Each of these fish becomes soft and pulpy almost as soon as the air strikes it and yields to the touch like so much butter An examination of some of the fish exposed for sale in market this morning disclosed the fact that they were diseased The blubber was found to be putrid and living animalcula were counted by hundreds in the flesh Further examination proves that two thirds of the fish exposed for sale were diseased Accordingly this afternoon chief of police Leck, acting under the direction of the health department dispatched a body of policemen to the different markets, and ordered fish men not to sell any more fish at present They protested indignantly against the order but were obliged to destroy the stock they had on hand and retire Members of the health board ascribe the disease to an imperfect system of sewerage which fills the rivers with the refuse matter and garbage of the city that pervades the water There are no signs as yet of the malady in the lake fish

AN INCIDENT IN THE ENGLISH HOUSE OF COMMONS —Just as the Speaker was putting the question a tremendous [illegible] was heard from an obscure corner of the House All eyes were turned in that direction The voice came from Major O Gorman the [illegible] member for Waterford who [illegible] his constituents by repudiating every English [illegible] He is a huge mountain of a man and his rich, Irish accents gave emphasis to his words He said he need not change his sex and become a Cassandra in order to prophesy that if the railways were made over to the English Government, every Irishman now employed on them would be displaced by English men and told to go to Hell or Connaught This startled the Speaker who told the Major that such language was not parliamentary The Major however insisted that it was a well known historical phrase which it certainly is and that in any case it was not so bad as Smollett calling Mr Gladstone a [illegible] Not long ago the Speaker checked Mr Bernal Osborne for quoting Sheridan's "damned good natured fr[illegible]" [illegible]

A WARNING VOICE FROM [illegible] DISTRICT

The opposition to Butler [illegible] work, and to-day the Salem [illegible] the leading paper in his district [illegible] torial reviewing the revolution of [illegible] the district, and concludes as follows [illegible] among the prominent causes that have produced an unquestionable change in the opinions of the people of this district [illegible] public man whom they once upheld with a surprising degree of unanimity Among all classes and conditions of the people this change of sentiment is manifest and the only thing that will prevent the nomination of a new man will be the failure of the public mind to unite upon a candidate in opposition Of this failure there may be great liability but in all other aspects of the case the public are ripe for a change and we are confident that the correctness of this view will be generally recognized by careful observers of public sentiment

ASTOUNDING PLAGIARISM The New York Arcadian makes the charge that plagiarism is becoming of daily occurrence especially in our periodical literature and brings forward two notable instances The first of these being illustrated article on the stage [illegible] the April number of Harper's Monthly [illegible] by Olive Logan which is a literal translation from a well known French work, entitled "L Envers du Theatre by M Moynet with the exception that some of the phrases are Americanized and American pay [illegible] tuted for French ones Even the cuts are [illegible] fered The second instance is an article in the New York Observer on The Tireless Br[illegible] by J R McDonald which is taken almost bodily from the Autocrat of the Breakfast Table It is highly probable that both McDonald and Miss Logan were absent [illegible] ed when they committed these thefts but [illegible] troubled with such mental [illegible] not make [illegible] the gratification of [illegible]
